

Pig For Life, a spin-off of the CER Groupe, is actively recruiting a

VETERINARIAN (M/F)

Localisation

MARCHE-EN-FAMENNE

Your role

- You are coordinating and supervising an experimental unit,
- You are performing experimental surgery for the development of pharmaceutical products and medical devices,
- You are coordinating the set-up and the follow-up of clinical studies and scientific projects,
- You are in direct contact with research centers and universities,
- You are ensuring the sanitary follow-up, the compliance with applicable quality and safety requirements as well as the compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements,
- You are supervising the large animal breeding facility according to the internal needs.

Your profile

- You are a veterinarian (or a last year's student), preferably with a background or a particular interest in surgery,
- You have an excellent clinical knowledge,
- You are fluent in English,
- You are flexible in labour time, dynamic and rigorous,
- You are proactive and have a high sense of responsibility,
- You are willing to (re)locate in an area within 50 km from the CER Groupe.

We are offering

- A full-time employment,
- A fixed-term contract with the possibility of a future permanent contract,
- A challenging job, in a modern infrastructure.

You can apply for this position till 05/07/19 by sending an e mail or a letter to Maud DEJOLLIER, HR assistant director.

by mail : m.dejollier@cergroupe.be by post: rue de la Science, 8 – 6900 Marche-en-Famenne

For any additional information, please contact Dr Delahaut : p.delahaut@pigforlife.be